STATEMENT REGARDING THE RETURN OF AN APPLICATION
FILED VIA EXPRESS MAIL

BOX FILING DATE

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

On November 19, 2001, I attempted to file the attached patent application by depositing the application with the United States Postal Service ("USPS") by Express Mail. As indicated on the attached application transmittal form, the Express Mail label number was EL710238859US. USPS refused to accept the correspondence. On November 21, 2001, the Express Mail package enclosing the application was returned by the USPS. The returned package included a notice affixed to the package indicating that Express Mail service to certain Washington, D.C. ZIP codes has been temporarily suspended. Please let your records indicate the filing date of November 19, 2001 for the attached application. Thank you.

Date: November 26, 2001

Respectfully submitted,

McCutchen, Doyle, Brown & Enersen, LLP

EXHIBIT C

VICE PRESIDENTS, AREA OPERATIONS
MANAGER, CAPITAL METRO OPERATIONS

SUBJECT: Temporary Suspension of Express Mail Service to
Washington, D.C. ZIP Codes 202 through 205

Due to current operating conditions and government security measures, Express Mail products destined for federal government agencies in Washington, D.C. (ZIP Codes 202 through 205), are experiencing significant delays. Therefore, effective immediately Express Mail service to Washington, D.C., ZIP Codes 202 through 205, is temporarily suspended. The sales of this service is to be discontinued at all retail locations, including Contract Postal Units (CPUs). Customers should be advised either to use First-Class Mail for mail destined for these ZIP Codes or wait to send items until this temporary suspension is lifted.

Business customers will be advised of this suspension through the Business Service Network. You will be advised when this suspension is lifted. If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Henry Parkey at (202) 268-5394.
